

THURSDAY=SITUATION DAY=THURSDAY

POSTIES AND MUSIC.

They Combine to Make the Flower Show a Garden of Delight.

Some Rare Species of Plants on Exhibition.

Early-Faced Pansies, Haughty Roses and Dainty Mignonettes.

At 8 o'clock last night the electric lights were turned on, the band played "The Merry Wives of Windsor," and the Spring flower show made the Madison Square Garden a palace of delight. There was music and fragrance in the air, and when Gustave d'Alquiin, orchestra leader, played "Love's Labor Lost," every sweet sound took a sweet odor by the hand and Flora's court danced entrancingly.

It was a feast for the senses. The atmosphere was a bouquet-redolent of hundreds of new and nameless perfumes and brilliant with tints and shades of color hitherto unknown.

Gorgeous little tulips in the bud set lovers and families quavering because of their remarkable resemblance to moss roses.

Some of the haughty "brides" and "American Beauties" held themselves so smartly that critical visitors would not believe them real until they had cut the leaves. Then there were pansies, pert as sunflowers, with faces as big as babies, actually breathing forth a deliciousness all their own.

These poetic blossoms came from Italy white through canary and golden yellow, violets and blues, to a purple black.

Such carnations! They were like the eyes and the lips of a young girl, and when you made your mouth water, there were roses like the lips of a young girl.

There are other things in the exhibit, but they are too many to list. They are all so beautiful that they are hard to describe.

One of the 100 specimens, the "Blonde Francine," has flowers like those of a corn. The French, the poets and the artists to whom this exquisite plant of general is dear, will prize it as a new variety.

Pitcher's Magnolia, of Short Hills, N. J., make the grand display. Their flowers of the valley are very fine, their petals took the first premium of the show, and no words can do justice to their beauty.

One plot, in mosaic, containing about 50 plants, show their display. It is at the left of the entrance, just beyond a bed of pink hydrangeas, at a glance these sample blossoms look like a Persian rug.

Mrs. S. T. Peters has a collection of camellias that attract a great deal of attention from the curious visitor who lingers in couples and talk about Camille and her exponents.

There are twenty-four kinds in white, red and pale green.

Hereafter the amphitheatre has been crowded, the flower show has been planted as in landscape gardens, leaving plenty of space between the beds for a promenade.

The decoration of the interior is also very pleasing. The galleries are draped with rich material and against every column and support is a color tree.

Masses of palm, Christmas green, pine and spruce trim the balconies, and the lands of holly festoon every wall space and arch, lending a touch of beauty.

Bonny girls from Jersey, Long Island, Flushing, Bay Ridge and Westchester, their lips and cheeks, cherries in the bud, and their hair, by a babbling-brook voice, he took a programme, please," and paid for the same.

When a Delmonico guest came into the garden, full of canna-lilies, said and addressed a frappe, and heard himself addressed as "kind sir" by a babbling-brook voice, he took a programme, please," and paid for the same.

The social backing of the New York Florists' Club is all that could be desired. Last evening a brilliant audience was present, with representatives of the following patrons and patronesses: Mrs. Astor, Mrs. J. J. Astor, Mrs. G. H. Astor, Mrs. G. S. Bowdoin, Mrs. E. Bronson, Mrs. C. Crosby, Mrs. H. Henry, Mrs. Rensselaer, Mrs. W. H. Bayard Cutting, Mrs. Charles F. Daly, Mrs. William

WORLD IN CHICAGO.

Citizens and Visitors Marvel at the Great Journal's Enterprise.

Its Special Western Edition is the Talk of the Town.

Printed Simultaneously with the Edition in This City.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Those New Yorkers who are now sojourning in Chicago were greatly pleased with The World's Chicago simultaneous and facsimile edition. They all thought it had the pleasure of reading the great New York daily fresh from the press, with the latest news presented in the best and simplest manner—not a day old, but just as they would have read it there at breakfast in New York.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph. And these New Yorkers went about praising the paper and exclaiming because it had not only done a great thing in reproducing their city, but also in the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

They were not surprised, because they are used to the enterprise of The World, but they were pleased at such striking evidence of the greatness of their city produced before the very eyes of Chicago in the day of her greatest triumph.

OLD ZEKE HAS TWO WIVES.

Arrest for Abandoning No. 2 Revealed that Fact.

He Deserted No. 1 Nine Years Ago, but She Appeared Against Him.

Edwards Smith, alias Ezekiel Smith, whose real name is said to be Ezekiel Abrams, better known to every one in Roslyn, L. I., as Old Zeke Abrams, is a prisoner in the Jersey City jail to-day on the charge of bigamy.

Edwards, under the assumed name of Smith, was arrested in Jersey City recently on a charge of abandoning his young wife, to whom he had been married less than four months, and through this charge of bigamy came out.

When arrested there was found in his possession a young widow, Maggie Waldron, who was employed as a servant in the Lafayette district of Jersey City. She was the mother of two children, and the possessor of a large sum of money, left by her first husband.

This became known to Abrams, alias Smith, and the old man hid away to the heart of the young widow.

"Old Zeke," represented that he was the owner of a fine property on Long Island, and proposed that if she would become his wife he would provide for her and her children a comfortable home.

The proposition was accepted and the couple were married Jan. 17.

Soon after the wedding, Abrams, under various pretexts, obtained sums of money from his wife, until finally her pockets were empty.

When arrested there was found in his possession a railway excursion ticket from Roslyn, L. I., to Jersey City, and a letter to his wife, dated in Roslyn, to hunt up the man's record, discovered he had another wife living in that town.

Mrs. Abrams No. 1 told Detective Smith her husband had deserted her nine years ago and that he did not care how many marriages he had contracted since.

All she cared for was to gain possession of some legal papers relating to their property, which he held in his possession, and that purpose was willing to come over to Jersey and assist in the prosecution.

While old Zeke was sitting in the prisoners' pen yesterday, the two wives advanced to the judge's bench and held a long and animated discussion with Judge Hudson, at the conclusion of which the prisoner was arraigned and committed for trial, after a severe lecture.

FOX CHASE IN THE PARK.

Elephant-keeper Billy Snyder Got the Brush.

Elephant-keeper Billy Snyder, of Central Park, is wearing the tip of a tail of a red fox as a trophy of the game he shot in the wilds of the Park yesterday.

The fox appeared among the swans and geese and was discovered by keeper Tim Dineen.

Elephant-keeper Snyder, who was on duty, was brought down in a dump of bushes behind the Swiss cottage.

FAIR SHOOTING ON A STEAMBOAT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Mrs. Worthington, the wife of an artist employed on a local newspaper, eloped a few days ago with Henry Bradley. The couple quarrelled and agreed to return on the boat from Stockton, but when they reached the city, Mrs. Bradley, inflicting mortal injuries.

WILL FURNISH YOUR HOME FOR $1 A WEEK AND UPWARD.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FOLDING BEDS, SPECIAL PRICES THIS WEEK.

408, 410, 412 EIGHTH AVE., 2d Door below 31st St.

Special attention given to parties furnishing Country Homes. Buy now. Goods stored until wanted free.

Where World "Want" Ads. May Be Left.

BATTERY TO 14TH STREET, EAST OF BROADWAY.

4th st., East, 48.

14th st., East, 25, 44.

14th st., cor. 3d ave.

2d st., West, 55.

14th st., West, 2, 20.

6th ave., 152, 224.

23d st., East, 162.

42d st., East, 26.

47th st., East, 159.

48th st., East, 203.

51st st., East, 154.

59th st., East, 206.

23d st., West, 124, 270.

34th st., West, 265.

39th st., West, 59.

AUTOPSY FOR MISS MERIEN.

No Longer Doubt that the Young Ravenswood Girl Is Dead.

Her End So Sudden that Her Mother Believed It a Trance.

The parents of Miss Ida Merien, the beautiful eighteen-year-old girl, who dropped dead at her home, 829 Vernon avenue, Ravenswood, L. I., have given up the idea that their daughter is in a trance, and have consented to an autopsy, which will be performed this afternoon.

Miss Merien was an unusually handsome girl, and she apparently enjoyed the best of health, except for slight attacks of rheumatism. Yesterday morning she complained of a headache, and asked that Dr. Frank, the family physician, be sent for.

Before the doctor could reach the house Miss Merien was apparently dead. Both Dr. Frank and Forbes pronounced the girl beyond the reach of medical skill, but Mrs. Merien could not believe that her daughter was dead.

She insisted that the body did not grow cold, and notwithstanding the arguments of her husband and the doctor, she would not give up the idea that Ida was only in a trance.

Coroner Meiners, of Long Island City, says that there is no question but that the girl died of heart disease. The story which was circulated throughout the Ravenswood district that the girl's cheeks retained their warmth and color for twelve hours after death, is said by Mr. Merien to be without foundation.

GEN. O'BRIEN SET RIGHT.

Railroad Men Not Allowed to Board Steamships First.

Gen. O'Brien, the Assistant Commissioner of Immigration, says that a mistake was made in stating that he had issued an order that an agent of the Ellis Island railroad pool should be allowed to board vessels before the passengers got off and solicit business from cabin and steerage passengers.

The fact is that he has issued a permit for an officer of the immigration bureau to board vessels, but this officer was in no way connected with the railroad pool, and his work was solely for the immigration bureau, and he did not need to be allowed to solicit railroad business openly or under cover.

Gen. O'Brien has furnished "The Evening World" with a satisfactory proof of this fact, and it is evident that he was wrongfully accused of violating his authority and the customs laws.

Author Page to Wed Mrs. Henry Field.

CHICAGO, May 3.—While a short time Thomas Nelson Page, of Richmond, Va., the well-known story writer, will marry Mrs. Henry Field, of Chicago, who has for two years been his hostess in the Flatlands of Chicago's millionaires, and a great student of art and literature.

FATAL SHOOTING ON A STEAMBOAT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Mrs. Worthington, the wife of an artist employed on a local newspaper, eloped a few days ago with Henry Bradley. The couple quarrelled and agreed to return on the boat from Stockton, but when they reached the city, Mrs. Bradley, inflicting mortal injuries.

WILL FURNISH YOUR HOME FOR $1 A WEEK AND UPWARD.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FOLDING BEDS, SPECIAL PRICES THIS WEEK.

408, 410, 412 EIGHTH AVE., 2d Door below 31st St.

Special attention given to parties furnishing Country Homes. Buy now. Goods stored until wanted free.

Where World "Want" Ads. May Be Left.

BATTERY TO 14TH STREET, EAST OF BROADWAY.

4th st., East, 48.

14th st., East, 25, 44.

14th st., cor. 3d ave.

2d st., West, 55.

14th st., West, 2, 20.

6th ave., 152, 224.

23d st., East, 162.

42d st., East, 26.

47th st., East, 159.

48th st., East, 203.

51st st., East, 154.

59th st., East, 206.

23d st., West, 124, 270.

34th st., West, 265.

39th st., West, 59.

42d st., West, 106, 257.

402.

124th st., West, 244.

115th st., West, 320.

130th st. and Lenox ave.

THIRTY-FIVE BUILDINGS DAMAGED AND TWO FIREMEN HURT.

Thirty-five Buildings Damaged and Two Firemen Hurt.

At 1:30 A. M. the flames were under control, but were still dangerous. Roofs were ablaze for blocks around the office building of the Louisville Water Company, with valuable books and papers, seemed doomed, but it was saved after hard work.

Two firemen, one named Kessler, the other name unknown, were injured by a falling wall, and Ariel truck No. 2 was smashed to splinters.

The offices of the Frankfort Lottery Company were damaged by water. With the exception of the Power Building, the structures destroyed and damaged were two and three stories high, and were not very valuable buildings.

The greatest losers are the Louisville Steam and Electric Power Company, building and plants, $150,000; insurance, $55,000; Ryan, painter, $10,000; Louisville Lithograph Company, $20,000, and the tenants of the Power Building, whose losses aggregate $175,000, insurance unknown.

The Electric Motor Power Company's building was one of the largest in the city, and space in it was rented to small and large manufacturers. The fire broke out on the fourth floor, but the origin is unknown.

ATTACKED BY A COLT.

Mrs. Carpenter Severely Injured by a Victorious Little Brute.

YONKERS, N. Y., May 3.—Mrs. Carpenter, a trained nurse, lived at 30 Prospect street, and was suffering from severe injuries received in a strange manner.

While visiting her sister, Mrs. George Frazier, in North Broadway, last Sunday, she went into the garden to pick some flowers. A vicious young colt roaming at large attacked her and bit her upon the arm. She ran for a tree and the colt followed. She finally became exhausted and the colt knocked her down and trampled upon her.

When rescued her left arm was broken and she had received internal injuries.

WILL FURNISH YOUR HOME FOR $1 A WEEK AND UPWARD.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FOLDING BEDS, SPECIAL PRICES THIS WEEK.

408, 410, 412 EIGHTH AVE., 2d Door below 31st St.

Special attention given to parties furnishing Country Homes. Buy now. Goods stored until wanted free.

Where World "Want" Ads. May Be Left.

BATTERY TO 14TH STREET, EAST OF BROADWAY.

4th st., East, 48.

14th st., East, 25, 44.

14th st., cor. 3d ave.

2d st., West, 55.

14th st., West, 2, 20.

6th ave., 152, 224.

23d st., East, 162.

42d st., East, 26.

47th st., East, 159.

48th st., East, 203.

51st st., East, 154.

59th st., East, 206.

23d st., West, 124, 270.

34th st., West, 265.

39th st., West, 59.

42d st., West, 106, 257.

402.

124th st., West, 244.

115th st., West, 320.

130th st. and Lenox ave.

Foot of West 130th st.

89th st., East, 173.

125th st., East, 156.

Ave. A, 1551.</